

Stacey Lintern joined Muscular Dystrophy Canada in 2012, and has worked in the not-for-profit sector for over 20 years. She has worked as a senior manager in large health organizations and the government, where she managed organizational development, strategic planning, stakeholder relations, partnerships, and mission delivery. Stacey started her career with the RN program at Seneca and was later a graduate of York University and the University of Toronto, specializing in non-profit business management in the executive business programs.

Stacey Lintern
Chief Executive Officer, Muscular Dystrophy Canada